

President Nixon.
Now more than ever.

“Years ago when I was a young congressman, things got under my skin. Herblock the cartoonist got to me. . . But now when I walk into this office I am cool and calm.”

Herblock on Nixon

"Mirror, Mirror, On The Wall,
Who's The Fairest One Of All?"

January 2, 1960

"And How Is Our Little Patient Today?"

November 8, 1964

The Apt Pupil

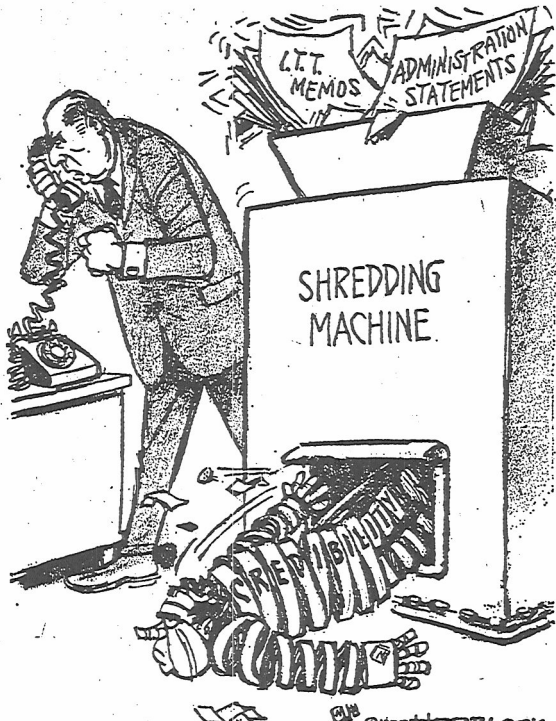

September 11, 1968

November 7, 1968

"Call Mrs. Beard's Doctor — There's Been A Terrible Accident"

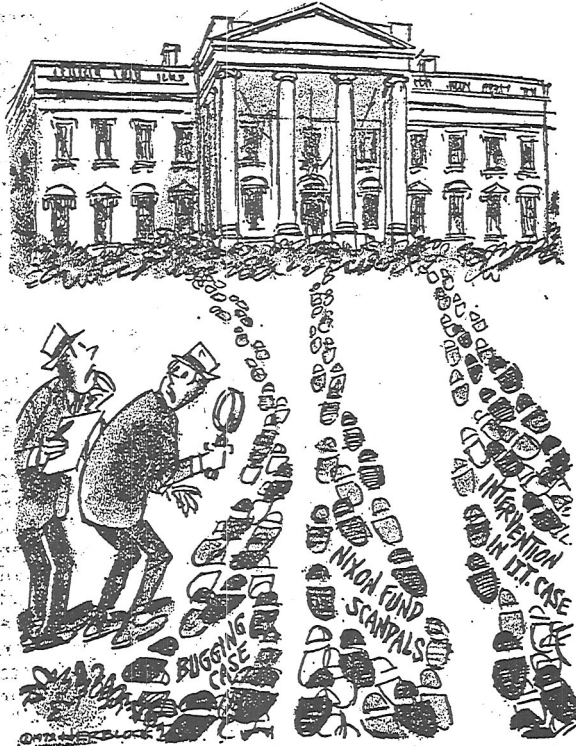

March 22, 1972

"Who Would Think Of Doing Such A Thing?"

June 20, 1972

"Strange — They All Seem To Have Some Connection With This Place"

June 23, 1972

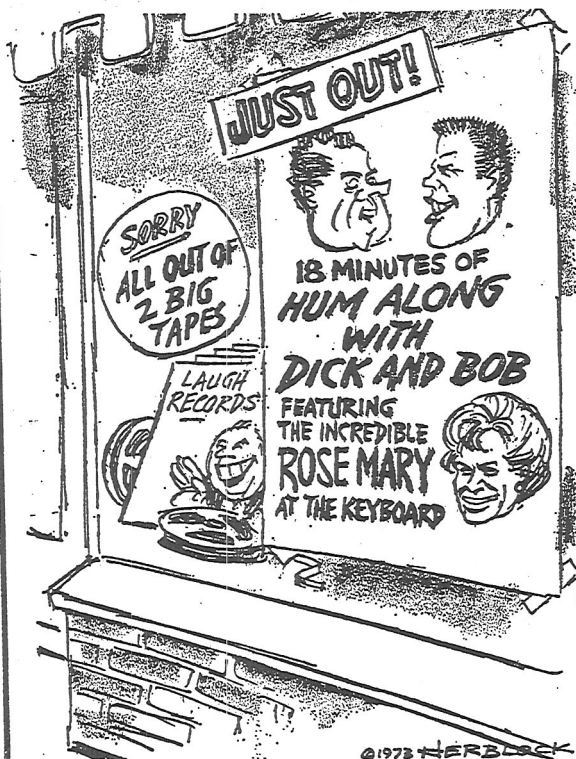

"Look—Nice Tapes—Okay, Boy?—Okay?—"

©1973 HERBLOCK

October 24, 1973

Record Shop

©1973 HERBLOCK

November 28, 1973

©1974 HERBLOCK

July 14, 1974